Impressive Investiture Ceremony at DPS Indore

Student Council Members of DPS Indore for the current academic session were sworn in on Thursday, the 18th of July, at an impressive Investiture Ceremony, amidst an air of enthusiasm and anticipation. After a traditional welcome, the school choir set the tone for the programme through a melodious song. The Principal, Mr. S. Sachdeva, introduced the Chief Guest for the day, Mr Shiv Singhji Mehta, Chairman and MD Kriti Industries and Chairman, IMA Indore. He further expressed gratitude to the Pro-Vice Chairman, DPS Indore, Shri Hari Mohanji Gupta, as well as the parents, for gracing the occasion with their presence, and went on to motivate the new students with suitable words of encouragement.

A total of 74 new members were given their respective sashes and sworn in, beginning with the Head Boy, Kamlesh Chag (XII) and Head Girl, Anshika Uppal (XII).

A scintillating dance performance by students of classes V and VI, a speech by Agrima Tiwari of XI and poem recitation by Kshitij Saha of VI were the other highlights of the day's programme.

The dignitaries were also invited to release a special commemorative issue of the school magazine 'Gallop' on the completion of 10 years of DPS Indore.

In his address the Pro Vice Chairman Mr. H. M. Gupta ji, shared his belief that every child has the potential to become a 'Ram' and develop into a unique individual and DPS Indore is an ideal platform for this. While the Chief Guest, Mr. Shiv Singhji, praised the focus on holistic development in the school. He requested parents to allow their wards to excel in their individual talents, rather than live up only to the parent's expectations. The Vote of Thanks was proposed by the Vice-Principal, Mrs. Sunila Bajaj. The programme was brought to a close with the singing of the national anthem.
