ISA ACTIVITY

MOTLEY OF FOLKTALES & FABLES - SPECIAL ASSEMBLY

The journey begins!!

There's an air of mystery in age-old beliefs and traditions. There's so much to ponder about customs being practised from time immemorial! What better way to plunge into the treasure troves than to travel back through the time machine and discover the origins of sometimes amusing and sometimes mind boggling practices of human societies!

The students of classes IV and V, experienced the abundant joy of participating in the Map Pointing activity held in the last week of April which is a sub activity of Folktales and Fables under the British Council International Award first project.

Students explored the wall sized, World Map and pointed the different countries that would be discussed in the narration of the folk tales and fables rooted therein.

Students promptly located the countries and completed colouring the regions in their World Map worksheets.

Curiosity, adventure and effort culminated into a great learning experience and a keenness to delve deeper filled the classrooms with unending enthusiasm.

MOTLEY OF FOLKTALES & FABLES - SPECIAL ASSEMBLY

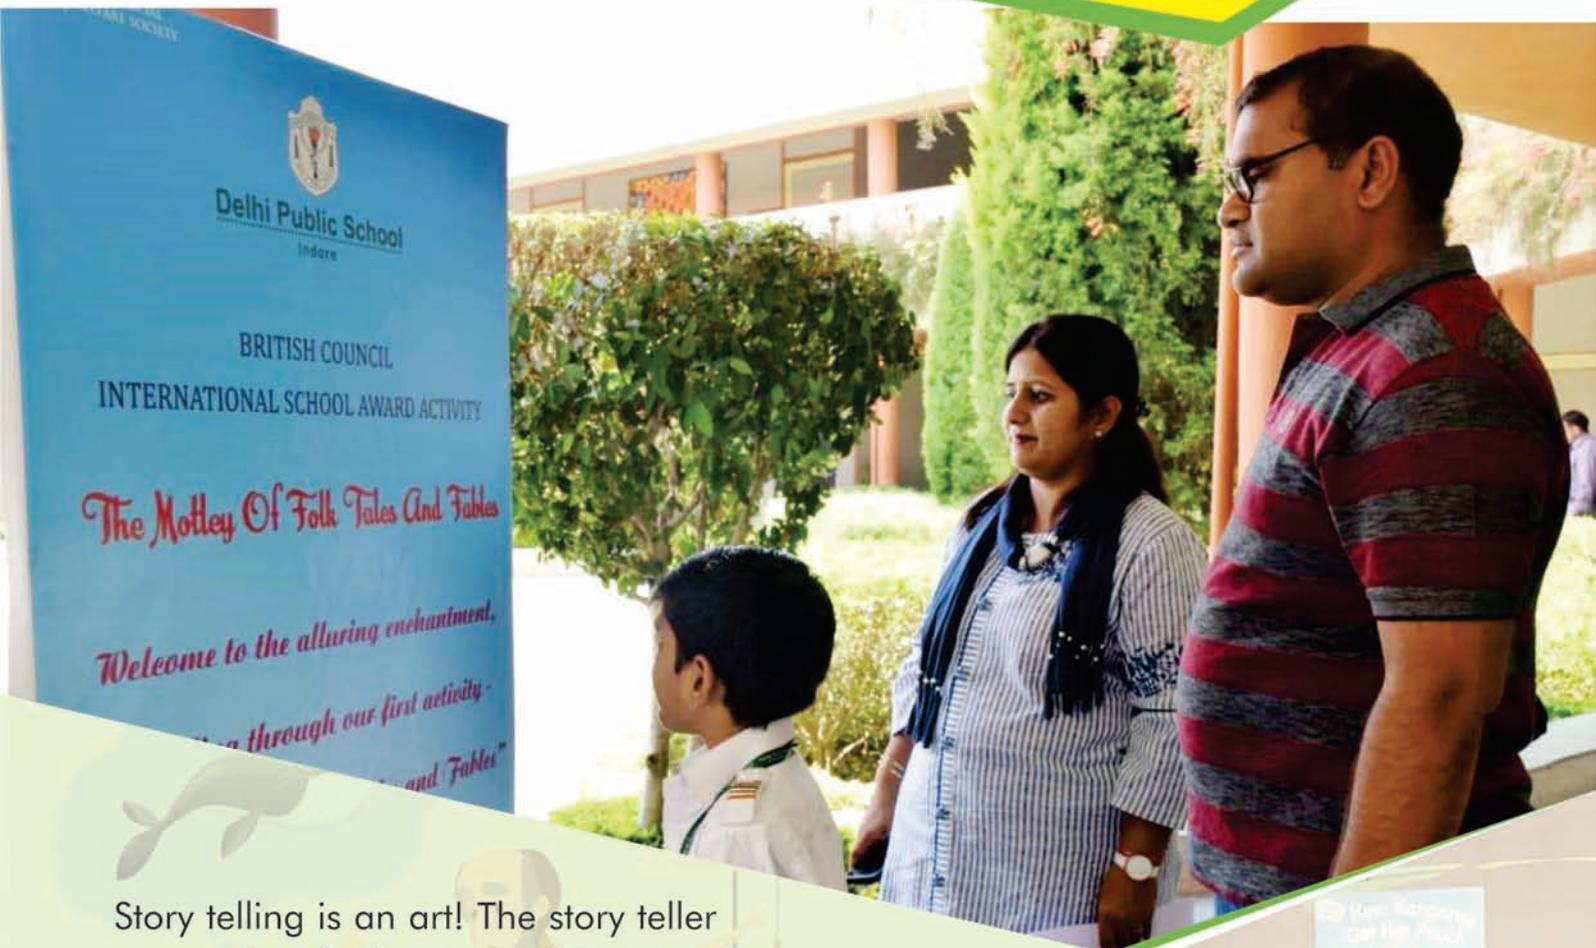

Mist shrouded visuals and mind boggling plots, form the basis of a gripping storyline....where the listener immerses into a vivid world of imagination! Our sub-activity, Motley of Folktales and Fables, as a part of the British Council, International School Awards activity has been an enchanting one in every sense of the word! Comprising of several segments under the same head, the activity witnessed its soulful culmination in the form of a Special Assembly! The event was a true expression of the exhilarating journey of students and teachers alike!

The event graced with the benign presence of Dr. Ravi Masand, Head of the department, Cardiology as the Chief Guest, instilled motivation among the listeners with his discourse.

The Guest of Honour, Mr. Pankaj Bhandari, an eminent child specialist of Indore and Mr Mohsin Khan, an adept storyteller, engaged the audience with his session of story telling with an undercurrent of tremendous learning! It was a delight to have the gracious presence of Mrs Vineeta Bhandari, Mrs Meenakshi Sharma and the Special Guests, Ms Neha Bhagat and Mr HansuNahar - senior faculties of French. The Principal, Mr Ajay. K. Sharma, applauded the presentations such as the French Welcome song, Folktale Recital- English, French, Hindi, the Chinese Skit- The Four Dragons and a Classical Dance Presentation by a talented dancer from class IV, Roopkatha Samantha. It has been an overwhelming experience and indeed an unforgettable one too!

EFFUSIONS - FOLKTALE NARRATION

Story telling is an art! The story teller mesmerises the listener and recreates an imaginative aura of the sequence of events appearing in the story!

In our activity, Folktale Narration, the teachers attempted to create the long lost charm of folk tales and a whole new world of imagination, where trees talk and spiders possess super powers!

The narration of fables from the rich Indian treasure trove of stories from Panchatantra, left students awestruck with their charismatic spell.

THE COSMOS OF CARTOONS

"Life is one big Fancy Dress party"..... Under the British Council ISA project "The Cosmos of Cartoons", a fancy dress Competition- "Who Am I??" was organised for the children of classes I and II to provide the students opportunities to acquire skills of social camaraderie and effective communication and give them a better understanding of the globally adorable cartoon characters.

The purpose of conducting the competition was not only to blend learning with fun and delight but also to develop confidence in students by giving them a platform to stand and speak in front of the audience.

Cartoons add colour and flavour to everyone's life and a wave of colour splashed over the stage as the students stepped in wearing vibrant attire with colourful props and spoke a few sentences on the character they depicted.

This was the most awaited event of the project and it was a matter of great pleasure to see the children becoming the best natural copycats. This activity sparked their imagination and stimulated creativity in them. The enthusiastic presence of the parents added to the glitz and glamour of the show turning the activity into a memorable event to be cherished forever.

SURVEY OF LOCAL FOOD JOINTS

Nothing brings people together like a generous spread of delicious food. Food is universal - a cultural marker. Food is where the heart is.

Street Food embodies the essence of a culture. It upholds traditional practices of a given ethnic hub and sustains the liveliness of cities. The street food of Indore is a global phenomenon that contributes to the image of central India.

As a part of the British Council Activity-World On a Platter, the students of class IX, X & XI visited central India's most famous street food destination 'Chappan'. This 200 meters long road is solely famous for the food it has to offer. From mouth-watering sweets to tangy chaat, this street has for eons been the hub for foodies all across the country. Our students were over the moon to visit Chappan. Their first stop was the famous VIJAY CHAT HOUSE, where everyone lined up to get their hand on the piping hot Khopra Patties. Next they went to MADHURAM SWEETS where the owner greeted the students with open arms and fed each and every one of them with the delicious sweets personally. The highlight of their trip was when they made a stop at their favourite little shop JOHNNY HOT DOG. They met the humble owner whom they congratulated on receiving an award for serving Asia Pacific's bestselling dish. The students eagerly gobbled on the delectable delights of Indore Street Food. The trip made the students appreciate the food culture of the city and learn about unique ingredients that are available in the Indian platter. They learnt to appreciate and respect the multiplicity of food culture, the difference in taste and techniques of recipes along with the attitude of sharing. They will also gain knowledge about nutritional value of the food items and make healthy food choices. After all they live in the food capital of the world!
